Read the selection and choose the best answer to each question.

Stephen is writing a report for his social studies class. Read Stephen's report and think about any mistakes he has made and how the report should be revised. Then answer the questions that follow.

Walking in New York

(1) One of the oldest jokes that New Yorkers tell is about how to identify a tourist—there the ones looking up! (2) New Yorkers get agitated by tourists because they walk slowly while taking in the sights, thereby clogging up the sidewalks. (3) Tourists visit New York City often comment on how fast New Yorkers walk. (4) It seems to them that everyone in New York city is in a hurry. (5) Which group is right—the tourists or the New Yorkers?

(6) According to transportation analysts who study pedestrian movement, people who live in cities general walk much faster than people from smaller towns. (7) New Yorkers walk an average of 350 feet per minute. (8) Tourists usually walk about 250 feet per minute. (9) Tourists walk approximately 30 percent slower.

(10) New Yorkers can get impatient when walking behind a tourist. (11) It slows them down. (12) Why do tourists visit New York City? (13) Most New Yorkers must rely on their feet for transportation, as opposed to motor vehicles, the city is so congested. (14) Sightseers on the sidewalks are like slow-moving vehicles in the fast lane on the highway. (15) Tourists are in the city to enjoy themselves and don't want to be rushed.

(16) So it turns out that both groups are correct.

14 Expectation: 7.17(A)

READ the quotation in the box below.

An American author once wrote, "We did not change as we grew older; we just became more clearly ourselves."

THINK carefully about the following statements.

Growing up is a series of changes. Some of the changes are personal, while others happen in the world around you.

WRITE an essay describing three changes you have experienced since leaving elementary school.

Be sure to —

- clearly state your controlling idea
- organize and develop your explanation effectively
- choose your words carefully
- use correct spelling, capitalization, punctuation, grammar, and sentences
